It is the opinion of Mr. Henderson that the light on the Gap Rock could not be got ready for three years from the date of the P.M .- Mail closed, except for Late commencement of the work. That is to say, assuming that the construction of the Lighthouse were to begin in the autumn of this year, the light could not be lit until the nutumn of 1890. Of course, this would full in with the expressed wish of the Secretary of State for the yesterday. Colonies, who, not having any special interest in the shipping trade of Hongkong, thinks it advisable to wait until 1890 for the light, and thereby obtain it by paying one third of its cost. But 26th inst., and may be expected to arrive such delay is not in accordance with the wishes of Hongkong merchants and on the 3rd prox. steamer-agents. WITH reference to the mutiny which wo mentioned some three weeks ago had broken out in Timor, and which led to the despatch of troops from Macao in the Guthric, the Java Bode of the 15th March also been mooted more than once. The says :- A mutiny has broken out among impetus given by the forthcoming Jubiles the native soldiery of the garrison stationed in Portuguese Timor. The Governor has been murdered by a band of natives soldiors, who lav in wait for him near his residence. Several other officers were also wounded. Owing to the fewness of European soldiers there, the outbreak may assume formidable proportions.

An inquest was held this afternoon in the Gaol on the body of Wong Asing, a prisoner who was found dead in his cell this morning. Mr Wodehouse, coroner, made a minute enquiry into the treatment of the prisonor. Ho was an old offender, who had been seven times convicted. He was admitted to the gaol on the last occasion, on the 21st July 1885, on a sentence of three years' penal servitude. The evidence was that death resulted from the repture of a blood-vessel near the heart. A verdict of death from natural causes was returned.

FIRE broke out last night in the house No. 143 Queen's Road. The house has been for some time without a regular tenant and has been made use of from time to time by people of bad character. Some remonstrance was made with the rent collector and he was induced to send away these loose characters. He suspects them of having set fire to the place. Fortunately, by the timely arrival of the police, the fire was got under before much damage was done. This morning, the rent collector found that the staircase had been sprinkled with kerosine oil and saw a tin with some kerosine lying there. There seems to be little doubt the staircase was set fire to by the rogues who were told to quit the house.

A MARRIED woman, residing in Tank Lane reported on Saturday afternoon at the Police Station on Saturday afternoon that her son, five years of age, had been kidnapped. Sergeant Macdonald, No. 15, went over to Yau-mah-ti, where he suspected the kidnapper had fled to, and arrested the rogue before he had time to gain Chinese territory. from Korea emphatically denies the rumour recently circulated, to the effect that the King had addressed to the Emperor of China a memorial suggesting the advisability of his—the King's—removal from the Royal office and appointment to that of governor-general of the peninsula under Chinese auprome direction. It is now asserted; on apparently good authority. that this report was not only false, but deliberately false. In other words, it owed its origin to political intrigue. We are not prepared to endorse this extreme view. though we do now believe that no such memorial was ever signed or sanctioned by the King. Possibly the proverbial germ of truth lying at the root of the story is a letter said to have been written by His Excellency Earl Li to the Korean Monarch. hinting, in courteous terms, that the appointment of a Chinese adviser to the Korean Court might be beneficial, in view of the embarrassed condition of the little kingdom's finances, and in view, also, of the troubles connected with the Russian trading-port negotiations. The relations between the Kingdom and its neighbour on the West are so dangerously vague that such a letter might easily be misconstrued by the general public. It is not necessary to attribute a false interpretation to anything so recondite as a deliberate scheme of deception. Until the status of Korea placed on an intelligible basis, we must be prepared for all kinds of vague rumours earing upon her foreign relations.

THE Amoy Gazette of 23rd instant contains the following further reference to the wreck of the Abbie Curver :- Further news has reached us to-day, in regard to the wreck reported to the east of Formosa. It now appears that the vessel was a full rigged ship and that she wont ashore on Uhinese, report that after the stranding the ship, four boats were seen to leave her and sail away, in spite of signals from the shore to land and take refuge on the island, The same night a typhoon occurred, and the day following the ship went to pieces. A quantity of tea was salved by the natives in good condition and some of it has reached Takow. Chinese documents found on board, or washed on shore, state that the vessel had besides other cargo, fourteen thousand piculs of rice and that she was chartered by four Chinese firms in Hongkong. The kerosine, referred to before, appears to be some other kind of oil There is little doubt that the unfortunate vessel was bound from Hongkong to San Francisco and it is to be presumed that the Insurance Companies in Hongkong will have no difficulty in identifying her. There is a remote chance of the crew having found shelter on Botel Tobago, an island to the southward of the score of the wreck, but it is hardly likely. All would, naturally, depend upon the direction of the wind, and as statements, so far, point to a the boats were swamped as soon as the ought to be at once made by a man-of-

They must consider their own interest, not morely do what pleased the foreigners. The scheme which he proposed and had met with general favour from the Chinese was the establishment of a Chinese Chamber of Commerce. They wanted this institution very much. In fact it was indispensable for a city like Hongkong, which was the entrepot of the trade in the Far East. It was a reproach to the Chinesa community that they had no place where they could discuss their feelings in matters of trade and commerce. If they had such an institution they would not be obliged to occupy the Tung Wah Hospital for meetings such as the one they were holding.

They took the liberty of going to the Tung Wah Hospital because they had subscrib ed to it, and there was no other place to go to; but it was really a Chinese Hospital and not a place for meetings being held. If the meeting agreed to the proposal that had been made, subscription lists would be sent round, and he was conweather. year of the reign of Her Majesty, whose name in connection with this memorial would be mentioned for ever. It was true they were only guesta here doing business with foreigners; but while they were here they ought to show their lovalty to the Queen whose kind protection they enjoyed, The British system of colonisation was second to none in the treatment of alien races. They were treated as British jects here in Hongkong, and, although in reality they were not, they might consider after the execution. themselves as such. It was but proper, therefore, that they should fittingly express the St. Petersburg to-day publishes a violent their appreciation of the kindness of Her article regarding the executions which have Majeaty. In her honour the library in the new Chamber of Commerce would be named the Victoria Library. They would endeavour to co-operate with the other residents so as to have the Jubilee celebrations held at one time by all, and they would join heartily in the illumination, crackerfiring and other rejoicing; but they wished nevertheless to have their own way as stopped. to the form which the celebration took.

There were Chinese Ambassadors and other Chinese officials of note passing through Hongkong from time to time, and it was a disgrace to the Chinese that they had no place to receive them. It did not look well even on the part of the British Government that in a place of the commercial importance of Hongkong the Chinose triders and merchants had no hall where they could meet to discuss attestions of husiness and where they could hold their meetings. If their request were approved of by the Government they intended as a temporary measure, to utilise a place near the Man Mo Temple. If the institution prospered and was appreciated they would Hancook was buried last might at the then construct a new and far better Military Cemetery, Bhowanipore, with building. The second annual general meeting of the shareholders in Ithis company was held in Shanghai on the 21st instant at the Company's Office, No. 3 Nanking Road, Mr W. V. Drummond presiding. There were present Messrs. R. Francis, bell, W. C. Ward and C. J. Dudgeon, (Secretary.) The Report is as follows :-

The Directors have now to make their Report for the past year. At the Meeting held on 8th April, 1886 the Shareholders were informed of the sale of the Papan and Saratus Mines for $17,250 and with the money received from this source, and by the realisation of other minor assets, the work of the Company has been carried on; this work has been to explore and prove, as thoroughly as the means and appliances of the Company allowed, the Tin Lode in the Schung property. The Report which was published on 7th September last gave the Shareholders full information of what had been accomplished to that date. The works had been recently visited by the Secretary and were sufficiently advanced to prove the existence of a tinbearing lode; two tons of rock ore from the lode were sent to London to be reported upon by experts, in the hope that by attracting public attention to the 'find,' some means might be devised for the development of the property. Three independent reports were in due course received and were published to the Shareholders on 23rd December; the three assays closely agreed and were in the highest degree, satisfactory, giving an average of Tin Oxide in the ore of from 37.28 to 43 per cent, equalling 27.96 to 32.34 per cent of Metallic Tin. It may be mentioned that samples of ore taken from a greater depth and said to be of even better quality, have since been sent home, but the report upon them has not yet been received.

Since the despatch of this last let of samples to London, Mr Hooper, who is in charge of the works, has not been able to do much more in exploring the lode. the absence of any appliances for coping with the water in the excavations during the rainy season, work has been brought almost to a standstill; but apart from this, it is Mc Hooper's opinion that little is to be gained by a continuance of the present mothod of working; the time has come when a proper system of scientific mining must be adopted, and the future development of the Mine is now dependent upon the success of the negotiations at present in progress with London. The Directors hope that by the date of the Meeting they may have something of a definite nature sto communicate to the Shareholders regarding these negotiations at present the position may be briefly summed up as follows: -An offer was made from London for the purchase of the whole property of the Company for £25,000, the purchase being dependent upon a favourable report upon the property by a Mining Engineer, but with a further stipulation attached requiring the Company to give the refusal of the property for four months after receipt in London of the Engineer's report; this stipulation in the opinion of the Directors rendered the offer impossible of acceptance and it was declined. Negotiations are now being carried on through another channel, but so far nothing definite is known; a telegram has been received saying that the reports upon the samples of ore are considered satisfactory and that negotiations are proceeding. The Directors regret that they have so little of a definite nature to lay before the Shareholders, but it is still satisfactory to know that an amount of attention is now being attracted to the Selama Lode, which it is reasonable to hope will lead to satisfactory results. At the meeting on 21st instant the Directors will propose a resolution empowering them to deal with the property at their discretion; upon this resolution they desire to have the fullest discussion in order that they may be guided by the wishes of the Sharoholders, as far as circumstances will allow, in conducting the negotiations.

Accounts. -- The Directors have considered it desirable to write off a very large sum from 'Plant' so as to reduce this asset to an amount which it may reasonably be expected to realise; the Company is still in possession of a large quantity of material, but as it was all purchased for alluvial mining very little of it is likely to be of any use at Selama. From time to time opportunities occur of disposing of different portions of what remains, but these opportunities are few and far between and siles can only be made at a great sacrifice. The value of remaining Plant now stands at about one third of book cost. During the first half of the year the old agreements with employes were still running, which makes Salarics Account' a heavy item in proportion to the whole expenditure; the monthly charge for 'Salaries' is now reduced to $550.

Directors.—Mr G. H. Wheeler having resigned his seat on the board on leaving Shanghai, Mr R. Francis was appointed in his place; he now resigns but offers himself for re-election.

Auditor.—On the departure from Shinghai of Mr C. D. Kerr, Mr G. R. Wingrove was appointed in his place; he now retires in accordance with the Articles, but offers himself for re-election.

The Chairman said, with the permission of the gentlemen present, they would take the Raport as read, as it had been in their hands for more than a fortnight. The Report contained in substance all the information which was in the hands of the Board up to the date it was issued. Since then the Directors had received no further information of any importance. But the meeting might perhaps like to know a little more with reference to the offer mentioned in the Report as having been refused. The offer for the purchase of the Company's property was one for a considerable sum, £25,000, but it was coupled with a condition which after a careful examination was found to be one which the Directors could not accept, acting as they did in the interests of the whole Company. The offer stipulated for the refusal of the property for a period which might extend up to 31st December of the present year; a very long period during which it would-be necessary to keep up the expenses of working, and at the end of that time they might have it thrown upon their hands. Under these circumstances there was nothing to be gained by accepting the offer and everything to lose, There was therefore only one course for the Directors to adopt which was to decline the offer. They had since put themselves in communication with Mesers T. A. Gibb & Co., of London, and these gentlemen now had Steamship BAYERN, Captain SANDER, the matter in hand, but up to the present with MAILS, PASSENGERS, SPECIE the Directors had only received one brief | and CARGO, will leave this port as above, telegram from them, and that did not con- calling at GENOA. tain any important news. They were waiting more definite information from Lundon. One resolution to be proposed required con-Ermation at a subsequent meeting, and they hoped to receive fuller information by that time. The resolution was-'That the Directors be and they are hereby authorised to sell, or otherwise dispose of, the whole or any part of the property

> That resolution was made necessary by the fact that the deed of association of the Company did not give the Directors power to sell the whole of the property of the Company without authority from the shareholders to do so; and under the articles of association it was necessary to obtain confirmation of the resolution from a second meeting of the shareholders to be held immediately afterwards. The Chairman then expressed his willingness to answer any questions before putting the resolution.

There being no questions, The Chairman proposed the foregoing resolution, which was seconded by Mr Low and carried unanimously. The Chairman proposed and Mr Francis

The Chairman then informed the shareholders that the adjourned meeting would be hold on that day fortnight, and the procoodings terminated.
